WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW
MARCH 5 – 7, 2020

OFFICIAL RULES

I. THE NATIONAL ENERGY AND SUSTAINABILITY MOOT COURT COMPETITION

A. Prologue

1. West Virginia University is proud to host the National Energy and Sustainability Moot Court Competition, an annual inter-law school appellate moot court competition.
2. Year 2020 is the tenth year of competition.
3. The National Energy and Sustainability Moot Court Competition is coordinated by the WVU Moot Court Board, their faculty advisors, and the WVU College of Law Center for Energy and Sustainable Development.

B. Definitions

1. Competition means the WVU National Energy and Sustainability Moot Court Competition.
2. The WVU Moot Court Board is the student-organized coordinator of the Competition; it consists of West Virginia University College of Law students enrolled in WVU's J.D. program.
3. Competition Chairs are the WVU law student members of the WVU Moot Court Board who are in charge of the Competition, as advised by the Director for the Center for Energy and Sustainable Development.
4. Team refers to each team registered to compete in the Competition.
5. Team Member refers to a student member of each Team as defined herein.
6. Team Number refers to the number that the Competition Chairs randomly assign to each Team.

7. Official Rules or Rules refers to these official rules and any other supplemental rules promulgated by the WVU Moot Court Board. Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure or Federal Rules are those rules that govern procedure in the United States courts of appeal. The Official Rules are modeled in part after the Federal Rules, which are available on-line at <http://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frap/rules.html>.

C. Purpose

The Competition's purpose is three-fold:

1. To develop expertise in energy law;
2. To stimulate greater awareness of the important issues of environmental impacts of energy production and sustainability; and
3. To promote appellate advocacy and to familiarize students with federal appellate practice.

II. TEAM COMPOSITION

A. Teams

1. Each law school may enter up to four Teams, subject to the limit on the overall number of Teams allowed in the Competition each year. As determined by the Competition Chairs, a limit of two Teams per school may be imposed to achieve broader participation in the Competition.
2. If more than one Team from a school is registered to compete, those Teams shall not work together prior to filing the brief. This Rule prohibits competing Teams (including Teams from different schools) from working together during the research, writing, and editing phases.
3. Notwithstanding Official Rule II.A.2, Teams from the same school may practice for oral argument together after the briefs from both Teams are filed.
4. West Virginia University may submit up to two Teams to compete in the preliminary rounds only; no WVU Team nor any of its Team Members is eligible for any awards.

B. Team Members

1. No Team Member may hold a law degree.
2. Team Members must be registered in a Juris Doctor program in the law school that they represent.
3. Each Team shall consist of two or three Team Members.
4. At least two team members must argue in all preliminary rounds.

5. No more than two Team Members may participate in each argument. If a Team has three Team Members, the Team Member who is not arguing in the round may not participate (i.e., may not sit at the table or communicate in any manner with participating Team Members during the round).
6. There shall be no substitution or addition of Team Members after service of briefs, except upon the express written consent of the Competition Chairs in response to a written request by the Team. Consent will be granted only in exceptional circumstances and is within the unreviewable discretion of the Competition Chairs.

C. Coaches

1. Coaches may be students, faculty members, or outside legal advisors.
2. Coach selection is within the free choice of Team Members.
3. Coaches shall not, under any circumstances, assist Team Members with respect to the preparation or filing of the brief. In other words, Team Members may not receive assistance from coaches with research, writing, drafting, or any other aspect of brief preparation.
4. Coaches may, however, assist with oral argument preparation.
5. Coaches are subject to these Official Rules, except as otherwise expressly stated.
6. Coaches may not interfere with any argument during the competition. If a coach speaks or disturbs in any way an active argument, the Team associated with that coach will be sanctioned. The level of the Penalty is at the discretion of the Competition Chairs.

D. Assistance

1. Team Members may not receive assistance from coaches, advisors, school writing centers, practitioners, faculty members, students, or anyone else while researching and writing the brief. The brief is to be the work product solely of the Team Members without outside assistance.
2. These Official Rules also prohibit anyone other than Team Members from editing the brief's legal content, organizational structure, or grammar.
3. Teams may receive assistance in oral argument preparation.
